COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

OVERVIEW

The College Football Playoff (CFP) is a postseason event to determine college football's national champion on the field, while emphasizing the significance of college football's unique regular season where every game counts.

RANKINGS

The selection committee ranks the schools based on the members' evaluation of their performance on the field, using conference championships won, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, and comparison of results against common opponents.

THE BRACKET

The format of the College Football Playoff is built on a 12-team bracket. The 12 participating schools are the five conference champions ranked highest by the CFP selection committee, plus the next seven highest-ranked teams. The four highest-ranked schools will be seeded 1-4 and will receive a first-round bye. The remaining teams, including the fifth conference champion, will be seeded 5-12 based on their final ranking.

TRADITION

The New Year's holiday period and bowl games belong to college football. This season following the CFP First Round games on campus, the four Playoff Quarterfinal games will be played in the Cotton Bowl Classic, Orange Bowl, Rose Bowl Game and Sugar Bowl. The following week, the Fiesta Bowl and Peach Bowl will host the Playoff Semifinals.

CHAMPIONSHIP MONDAY

The two teams that win the Playoff Semifinals compete for the College Football Playoff National Championship. The national championship game is in a different city each year, always on a Monday night.

UNIVERSAL ACCESS

Every Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) team has equal access to the College Football Playoff based on its performance during the regular season. No team automatically qualifies.

GOVERNANCE

University presidents and chancellors from all 10 FBS conferences and Notre Dame serve as the board of managers and govern the administrative operations, with commissioners and Notre Dame athletics director (the Management Committee) managing the event. A small staff in the CFP office in Irving, Texas, carries out the day-to-day responsibilities.

SELECTION COMMITTEE

A talented group of 13 high-integrity individuals with experience as coaches, student-athletes, college administrators and journalists, along with sitting athletics directors, comprise the selection committee. Members of the committee are Chris Ault, Troy Dannen, Mark Dantonio, Jeff Long, Ivan Maisel, Chris Massaro, Randall McDaniel, Mack Rhoades (chair), Mike Riley, David Saylor, Wesley Walls, Carla Williams and Hunter Yurachek.

SELECTION COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

Rank the top 25 teams, assign the schools to the 12-team playoff bracket and assign the Playoff Quarterfinal and Playoff Semifinal bowl sites.

ACC HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, North Carolina, with seven charter members – Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest – drawing up the conference bylaws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, North Carolina, where a set of bylaws was adopted, and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were Dixie, Mid-South, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when South Carolina tendered its resignation. The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of Miami and Virginia Tech. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on September 18, 2011, when Pittsburgh and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013, after announcing on September 12, 2012, its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15. The Fighting Irish will play five games with ACC schools each year in football.

On July 1, 2014, Louisville entered the ACC on the same day Maryland withdrew, keeping the conference's membership at 15 institutions.

In September 2023, the ACC Board of Directors voted to formally admit the University of California, Berkeley (Cal), Southern Methodist University (SMU) and Stanford University to the Atlantic Coast Conference. SMU officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2024, while Cal and Stanford became members on August 2, 2024.

Greensboro's King Cotton Hotel was the location of the ACC's first office from 1954 to 1966.

Boston College was founded in 1863 by the Society of Jesus to serve the sons of Boston's Irish immigrants and was the first institution of higher education to be founded in the city of Boston. Originally located on Harrison Avenue in the South End of Boston, the College outgrew its urban setting toward the end of its first 50 years. A new location was selected in Chestnut Hill and ground for the new campus was broken on June 19, 1909. During the 1940s, new purchases doubled the size of the main campus. In 1974, Boston College acquired Newton College of the Sacred Heart, 1.5 miles away. With 15 buildings on 40 acres, it is now the site of the Law School and residence halls. In 2004, BC purchased 43 acres of land from the Archdiocese of Boston; this now forms the Brighton campus.

The University of California, Berkeley, is consistently rated the world's top public university. The flagship of the 10-campus University of California system, it was chartered in 1868 with a mission to excel in teaching, research and public service. Enrolling more than 42,000 undergraduate and graduate students, the campus has more than 1,500 full-time and 500 part-time faculty members in more than 130 academic departments that offer more than 350 degree programs. The faculty's outstanding research achievements and scholarship so far have led to 26 Nobel Prizes, and an additional 35 Nobel Prizes have been won by alumni.

Clemson University was founded in 1889 through a bequest from Thomas Green Clemson, a Philadelphia-born, European-educated engineer who married John C. Calhoun's daughter, Anna, and settled at her family estate in South Carolina. To help rebuild the state's war-ravaged economy, Clemson left his home and fortune to the state of South Carolina to fund the science and research-oriented institution that bears his name. Located on the shores of Hartwell Lake with its own 16,000-acre forest, Clemson is known today for its focus on student success and engagement, its statewide land-grant mission and its unrelenting school spirit.

Duke University was founded in 1924 by tobacco magnate James B. Duke as a memorial to his father, Washington Duke. Originally the school was called Trinity College, a Methodist institution, started in 1859. In 1892, Trinity moved to west Durham where the east campus with its Georgian architecture now stands. Nearby are Sarah P. Duke Gardens, and further west the Gothic spires of Duke Chapel overlook the west campus.

Florida State University is one of 11 universities in the State University System of Florida. It was established as the Seminary West of the Suwannee by an act of the Florida Legislature in 1851 and first offered instruction at the post-secondary level in 1857. Its Tallahassee campus has been the site of an institution of higher education longer than any other site in the state. In 1905, the Buckman Act reorganized higher education in the state and designated the Tallahassee school as the Florida Female College. In 1909, it was renamed Florida State College for Women. In 1947, the school returned to a co-educational status, and the name was changed to Florida State University.

Next to I-85 in downtown Atlanta stands the Georgia Institute of Technology, founded in 1885. Its first students came to pursue a degree in mechanical engineering, the only one offered at the time. Tech's strength is not only the red clay of Georgia but a restored gold and white 1930 model A Ford Cabriolet, the official mascot. The old Ford was first used in 1961, but a Ramblin' Wreck had been around for over three decades. The Ramblin' Wreck fight song appeared almost as soon as the school opened, and it is not only American boys that grow up singing its rollicking tune, for Richard Nixon and Nikita Khrushchev sang it when they met in Moscow in 1959.

The University of Louisville began to take shape on April 3, 1798, when eight men declared their intention to establish the Jefferson Seminary in Louisville and called upon their fellow citizens to join them in pledging funds for land, buildings, and teachers. These early Louisvillians took the first steps on a journey that would link them with succeeding generations to the modern University of Louisville in the twenty-first century. Today's University of Louisville has become known especially for teaching, research, and service to its community and the advancement of educational opportunity for all citizens thereof. With an enrollment of 21,000, its academic programs attract students from every state and from all over the world.

The University of Miami was chartered in 1925 by a group of citizens who felt an institution of higher learning was needed for the development of their young and growing community. Since the first class of 560 students enrolled in the fall of 1926, the University has expanded to more than 15,000 undergraduate and graduate students from every state and more than 114 nations from around the world. The school's colors, representative of the Florida orange tree, were selected in 1926. Orange symbolizes the fruit of the tree, green represents the leaves and white, the blossoms.

The University of North Carolina, located in Chapel Hill, has been called "the perfect college town," making its tree-lined streets and balmy atmosphere what a college should look and feel like. Its inception in 1795 makes it one of the oldest schools in the nation, and its nickname of Tar Heels stems from the tar pitch and turpentine that were the state's principal industry. The nickname is as old as the school, for it was born during the Revolutionary War when tar was dumped into the streams to impede the advance of British forces.

North Carolina State University is located in the state capital of Raleigh. It opened in 1889 as a land-grant agricultural and mechanical school and was known as A&M or Aggies or Farmers for over a quarter-century. The school's colors of pink and blue were gone by 1895, brown and white were tried for a year, but the students finally chose red and white to represent the school. An unhappy fan in 1922 said State football players behaved like a pack of wolves, and the term that was coined in derision became a badge of honor.

The University of Notre Dame began late on the bitterly cold afternoon of November 26, 1842, when a 28-year-old French priest, Rev. Edward Sorin, C.S.C., and seven companions took possession of 524 snow-covered acres that the Bishop of Vincennes had given them in the Indiana mission fields. A man of lively imagination, Father Sorin named his fledgling school in honor of Our Lady, in his native tongue, "L'Université de Notre Dame du Lac" (The University of Our Lady of the Lake). On January 15, 1844, the University was thus officially chartered by the Indiana legislature.

The University of Pittsburgh was founded as Pittsburgh Academy by Hugh Henry Brackenridge in 1787 and is one of the oldest institutions of higher education in the United States. Pitt researchers led by Jonas Salk developed the first polio vaccine in 1955, and Pitt surgeons have performed more than 17,000 organ transplants, making Pitt the world's transplantation capital. In 1932, a Pitt team led by Charles Glen King isolated and identified the chemical structure of vitamin C.

A nationally ranked private university located near the heart of Dallas, SMU is a distinguished center for global research and teaching. SMU's more than 12,000 diverse, high-achieving students come from all 50 states and over 80 countries to take advantage of the University's small classes, meaningful research opportunities, leadership development, community service, international study and innovative programs. SMU serves approximately 7,000 undergraduates and 5,000 graduate students through eight degree-granting schools. SMU's relationship with Dallas – the dynamic center of one of the nation's fastest-growing regions – offers unique learning, research, social and career opportunities that provide a launch pad for global impact.

Founded in 1885, Stanford's campus is home to seven schools, a distinguished faculty that includes 20 living Nobel laureates, and more than 7,800 undergraduates and 9,600 graduate students. Founded almost 150 years ago on a bedrock of societal purpose, Stanford's mission is to contribute to the world by educating students for lives of leadership and contribution with integrity; advancing fundamental knowledge and cultivating creativity; leading in pioneering research for effective clinical therapies; and accelerating solutions and amplifying their impact.

Syracuse University was founded during the Methodist State Convention in Syracuse, N.Y., in February of 1870. Measures were taken to raise $500,000 to endow the university, with the city of Syracuse subscribing $100,000. Rev. Jesse T. Peck, who was elected president of the Syracuse University Board of Trustees, suggested purchasing 50 acres of farmland in southeastern Syracuse. The Board of Trustees of Syracuse University signed the University charter and certificate of incorporation on March 24, 1870, and the university's College of Liberal Arts opened in September of 1871.

The University of Virginia was founded in 1819 by Thomas Jefferson and is one of three things on his tombstone for which he wanted to be remembered. James Madison and James Monroe were on the board of governors in the early years. The Rotunda, a half-scale version of the Pantheon which faces the Lawn, is the focal point of the grounds as the campus is called. Jefferson wanted his school to educate leaders in practical affairs and public service, not just to train teachers.

Virginia Tech was established in 1872 as an all-male military school dedicated to the original land-grant mission of teaching agriculture and engineering. The University has grown from a small college of 132 students into the largest institution of higher education in the state during its 132-year history. Located in Southwest Virginia on a plateau between the Blue Ridge and Allegheny Mountains, the campus consists of 334 buildings and 20 miles of sidewalks over 2,600 acres. The official school colors - Chicago maroon and burnt orange - were selected in 1896 because they made a "unique combination" not worn elsewhere at the time.

Wake Forest University was started on Calvin Jones' plantation amid the stately pine forest of Wake County in 1834. The Baptist seminary is still there, but the school was moved to Winston-Salem in 1956 on a site donated by Charles H. and Mary Reynolds Babcock. President Harry S. Truman attended the ground-breaking ceremonies that brought a picturesque campus of Georgian architecture and painted roofs. Wake's colors have been black and gold since 1895, thanks to a badge designed by student John Heck who died before he graduated.

THE TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

In today's intercollegiate athletics, competition is so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency. Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds.

Established in 1953, the ACC has long enjoyed a reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture; the numbers support it.

Through 72 years of competition, ACC schools have claimed a total of 196 NCAA team championships — including 103 in women's sports, 87 in men's sports, and six in coed fencing. In addition, ACC student-athletes have earned 460 individual NCAA titles, with 217 in men's competition and 243 in women's events, further showcasing the depth of talent and excellence across the conference.

Over the last four years (2021-22, 2022-23, 2023-24, 2024-25), the ACC has achieved unparalleled national success as the league has won six or more national titles in each of the last four years, marking the best run in ACC history.

ACC teams captured a league-record nine NCAA championships in 2022-23. Combined with seven national titles in both 2021-22 and 2023-24, and six more in 2024-25, the ACC has won 29 NCAA team championships in league-sponsored sports over the past four years — the most of any conference during that span.

For 18 straight years, the ACC has led the way among Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conferences in the "Best Colleges" rankings released by U.S. News & World Report.

In August 2019, the ACC and ESPN partnered to launch ACC Network (ACCN) — a 24/7 national platform dedicated to ACC sports and original programming highlighting the conference's schools, student-athletes, and traditions. In August 2024, ACCN celebrated its five-year anniversary with a special broadcast honoring the ACC's most memorable teams, coaches, student-athletes, and moments since its launch on August 22, 2019.

Now in its 73rd year, the Atlantic Coast Conference has grown to 18 member institutions and remains one of the most respected and competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. From coast to coast, the ACC represents a remarkable blend of academic distinction, elite athletic performance, and unwavering integrity — the very cornerstones on which the league was founded in 1953.

The conference's membership includes: Boston College, California, Clemson, Duke, Florida State, Georgia Tech, Louisville, Miami, North Carolina, NC State, Notre Dame, Pitt, SMU, Stanford, Syracuse, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest. Each institution brings a rich tradition and a shared commitment to developing student-athletes who excel in both the classroom and in competition.

Today, more than 12,200 student-athletes across these 18 universities compete at the highest level of NCAA athletics, showcasing the ACC's unparalleled depth, national reach and continued impact on the collegiate landscape.

The Atlantic Coast Conference continues to make its mark on the national stage, proving year after year that excellence runs deep across the league.

The ACC has had a team appear in either the College Football Playoff or BCS National Championship Game in nine of the past 12 seasons, including two teams in both 2020 and again in 2024, making the ACC one of only three conferences to place multiple teams in the CFP last season.

In 2024, the ACC set a league record with 13 teams earning postseason bowl invitations — the most of any conference. It marked the 24th consecutive season in which the ACC earned at least six bowl bids and, outside of the pandemic-altered 2020 season, the conference has sent at least nine teams to bowl games every year since 2014. Over just the last two seasons, ACC programs have accounted for 24 total bowl appearances, reflecting the league's depth, consistency, and national competitiveness.

The 2024 season also showcased an unprecedented level of performance. For the first time in ACC history, four teams recorded 10 or more wins, while six teams reached at least nine victories. In 2023, six ACC teams started the season at 4-0, tying the 2012 SEC for the most 4-0 starts by a Power 5 conference in the AP Poll Era (since 1936). That same season, 10 ACC teams finished with winning records, the second-most ever by the conference in the playoff era (trailing only 2016, when 11 teams posted winning seasons).

For the second consecutive season, four teams finished in the Top 25 of both the final Associated Press (AP) and AFCA US BLM Coaches Polls last year. In the final 2025 AP Poll, SMU was ranked No. 12, Clemson was No. 14, Miami came in at No. 18 and Syracuse was No. 20. In the final 2025 AFCA Coaches poll, SMU and Clemson tied at No. 11, Miami was ranked No. 18 and Syracuse came in at No. 22.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The ACC conducts championship competitions in 28 sports — 13 for men and 15 for women.

The first ACC championship held was in swimming at North Carolina State University on February 25, 1954.

The 13 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming & diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship held in tennis on October 6-8 at Wake Forest University. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, field hockey, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming & diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, gymnastics, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing, with volleyball deciding its champion by regular season play.

No FBS conference sponsors more than 28 sports, nor features more than 15 women's sports.

2024-25 YEAR IN REVIEW

The conference completed championship competition in all 28 sports with 12 different schools claiming at least one conference crown.

The ACC was third among all conferences in 2024-25 with six NCAA titles in sports it directly sponsored, while ACC student-athletes accounted for 32 individual national championships across several Olympic Sports.

The ACC once again led all Power 5 conferences in the U.S. News & World Report "Best Colleges" rankings, with an average ranking of 51.7—its 18th consecutive year at the top. In the NCAA's May 2025 Academic Progress Rate (APR) data report, the ACC posted an average score of 991, seven points above the national average, while all 28 ACC-sponsored sports exceeded the NCAA's minimum APR of 930 and 114 teams earned perfect scores of 1000, including at least one team from each of the 18 member schools. Additionally, the ACC posted a 94 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in the NCAA's November 2024 report, surpassing the national average by four points.

ACC TIEBREAKER POLICY

The Atlantic Coast Conference Football Champion will be decided by a game between the top two (2) post-season eligible teams.

The two teams with the highest percentage of wins during all regular-season Conference competition shall play in the Championship Game. If three (3) or more such teams are tied with the highest percentage of wins or two (2) or more teams are tied with the second highest percentage of wins, the following tiebreaker procedure shall be administered to determine the representative(s) in the Championship Game.

The team with the highest win percentage, either outright or after application of the tiebreaker, shall be declared the home team for the Championship Game.

A. Two-Team Tie

1. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
2. Win-percentage versus all common opponents.
3. Win-percentage versus common opponents based upon their order of finish (overall conference win percentage, with ties broken) and proceeding through other common opponents based upon their order of finish.
4. Combined win-percentage of conference opponents.
5. The tied team with the higher ranking by the Team Rating Score metric provided by SportSource Analytics following the conclusion of regular season games.
6. The representative shall be chosen by a draw as administered by the Commissioner or Commissioner's designee.

B. Three (or More) Team Tie

Three (or more) team tiebreaker procedure will be used to either a) identify one Championship Game representative, b) identify both Championship Game representatives, or c) eliminate team(s) from the tie. If the administration of the three (or more) team tiebreaker results in the elimination of team(s) from the tie, teams remain tied, and both Championship Game representatives have not been determined, the tiebreaker procedure will restart for remaining tied teams.

1. Combined head-to-head win-percentage among the tied teams if all tied teams are common opponents.
2. If all the tied teams are not common opponents, the tied team that defeated each of the other tied teams.
3. Win-percentage versus all common opponents.
4. Win-percentage versus common opponents based upon their order of finish (overall conference win percentage, with ties broken) and proceeding through other common opponents based upon their order of finish.
5. Combined win-percentage of conference opponents.
6. The tied team with the highest ranking by the Team Rating Score metric provided by SportSource Analytics following the conclusion of regular season games.
7. The representative shall be chosen by a draw as administered by the Commissioner or Commissioner's designee.

* Note: Conference games against otherwise post-season ineligible teams will always be counted in the league standings and in application of the tie-breaker policies.

ACC X NFL

■ No conference blends college football and NFL experience quite like the ACC in 2025, with three former NFL head coaches now leading programs: Bill O'Brien (Boston College), Bill Belichick (North Carolina), and Frank Reich (Stanford), the most of any conference.

■ Several ACC programs also feature General Managers with deep NFL ties, including Ron Rivera (Cal), John Garrett (Duke), Michael Lombardi (North Carolina) and Andrew Luck (Stanford), along with a growing number of former NFL stars contributing across coaching staffs and player development roles.

NORTH CAROLINA, STANFORD & WAKE FOREST HIRE NEW HEAD COACHES

■ After over two decades of dominance in the NFL, Bill Belichick was hired for his first-ever college head coaching job at North Carolina in December 2024. Widely considered one of the greatest coaches in football history, Belichick won six Super Bowls and 17 division titles over his time in the NFL, which also includes 333 career wins to make him the second-winningest head coach in NFL history, behind only Don Shula, who holds the all-time record with 347 total wins.

■ Frank Reich was named Stanford's interim head football coach by Stanford Football General Manager Andrew Luck on March 31. The 36th head coach in program history, Reich will serve as interim head coach for the 2025 campaign. Reich is one of the sport's most well-respected offensive minds thanks to over 30 years in professional football, combining a 14-year playing career as an NFL quarterback with 18 seasons in various coaching roles. Reich was a member of six Super Bowl teams overall, four as a player with the Buffalo Bills (1991-94), and twice as a coach. Highly regarded in NFL circles with a knack for building lasting relationships, Reich's six-year head coaching tenure included five seasons with the Indianapolis Colts (2018-22) before his final stop at the helm of the Carolina Panthers (2023). Reich's NFL resume also includes four years as an offensive coordinator, including two seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles (2016-17), the second of which resulted in the franchise's first Super Bowl title in Super Bowl LII (2018).

■ Jake Dickert was named the head coach at Wake Forest in December 2024, following the resignation of longtime head coach Dave Clawson. Dickert took over Washington State as interim head coach in 2021 and earned the permanent role, leading the Cougars for four years from 2021-24. In four seasons, Dickert compiled a 23-20 record (.534) and led the Cougars to three bowl games. Last season proved to be his best work, going 8-4 in the regular season

2025 ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME SET FOR 8 P.M. ET

■ The 2025 ACC Football Championship Game will kick off at 8 p.m. ET on Saturday, December 6, at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, North Carolina, on ABC. The league's football championship game will showcase the top two teams based on regular-season conference winning percentage.

■ The 8 p.m. ET kickoff marks the 16th time in the last 17 years that the game will be held in primetime. Since its inception in 2005, a total of 14 different teams have competed in the championship game.

■ Bank of America Stadium, home of the NFL's Carolina Panthers, has hosted 14 of the last 15 ACC Football Championship Games. The ACC, Carolina Panthers, and the Charlotte Sports Foundation have an agreement to keep the championship game in Charlotte through the 2030 season.

■ The winner of the conference championship game has advanced to the National Championship Game or competed in the College Football Playoff in nine of the last 12 seasons, including both of the two participating teams last year, with the ACC being one of only three multi-bid leagues in 2024.

AP ALL-TIME ALL-AMERICA TEAM

■ Current ACC football members had 12 former Associated Press (AP) All-Americans named to the Associated Press (AP) All-Time All-America Team, as part of the news organization's celebration of the 100th anniversary of the storied honor for the top players in college football.

■ Pitt placed three players on the AP All-Time All-America First Team, tying with Ohio State for the most from one school.

■ The 12 honorees from current ACC schools include nine members of the National Football Foundation (NFF) College Football Hall of Fame, five recipients of ACC Football Legend honors, and two standouts named to the ACC 50th Anniversary Team in 2003.

■ To be eligible for the AP All-Time All-America Team, a player had to have been named an AP First-Team All-American at least once during his college career. The selection process did not consider a player's professional career. Additionally, players were only considered for the side of the ball where they earned First-Team All-America honors, with the exception that all-purpose players could be selected from any position.

 - In 2022-23, the ACC won the most NCAA championships of any conference with a league-record nine.
- Over the last four years, an ACC team has had to beat another ACC team in either the NCAA semifinals or championship game 17 times.
 - In 2024-25, the ACC had multiple teams in the final four of several NCAA Championships:
 - Women's Soccer: 4 of the final 4 teams; both teams in the championship.
 - Volleyball: 2 of the final 4 teams.
 - Women's Lacrosse: 2 of the final 4 teams.

LEARFIELD Directors' Cup Standings

- Six ACC schools were ranked among the top 25, including three in the top 10, in the final Division I LEARFIELD College Directors' Cup standings following the 2024-25 academic year. All 18 ACC programs finished in the top 75 of the final standings.
- This marks the 23rd consecutive year that four or more ACC schools placed among the top 30 in the final LEARFIELD Directors' Cup standings. North Carolina and Virginia have ranked among the top 30 nationally in each of the 31 years the Directors' Cup has been conducted.
- The ACC was one of only two conferences with every school among the final top 75 this year. This marks just the second time in the last decade in which every ACC team finished in the top 75 (2020-21 was the other occurrence).

ACC STUDENT-ATHLETE PROGRAMS & SERVICES

- The ACC conducted its fourth annual Health and Safety Summit in May 2025, this time in Charlotte, North Carolina, bringing together athletic trainers, team physicians, dietitians, mental health practitioners, sports performance coaches, and others within the ACC's health and sports performance community to collaborate and to share best practices.
- The ACC continued to provide leadership development programming to ACC coaches through the "Coaching the Whole Athlete Academy". The Coaching Academy is an eight-week virtual and immersive development program established by the league office that equips coaches with information, tools, and skills of a humanistic approach to better support the needs of the student-athlete.
- The ACC organized the second annual ACC Career Trek in Charlotte, North Carolina, in June 2025. The trek included 30 student-athletes across the league meeting with representatives and listening to panel discussions from five different categories including sports, real estate, finance/banking, consulting and government.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

ACC Student-Athletes Excel Once Again in NCAA APR Report

- Atlantic Coast Conference teams continue to demonstrate strong academic performance, as reflected in the latest Academic Progress Rate (APR) data released by the NCAA in May.
 - Overall, the ACC average APR is 991, seven points above the NCAA Division I national average. Every team among the ACC's 28 sponsored sports exceeded the NCAA's required APR of 930, while 114 ACC teams recorded a perfect score of 1000, including at least one team from each of the 18 member institutions. All ACC football, men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball programs exceeded the NCAA's required APR of 930.

ACC Makes Another Strong Showing in NCAA Graduation Success Rates

- The Atlantic Coast Conference's collective high level of academic success is again reflected by the NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) report released in November 2024. The ACC's average graduation rate of 94 percent is four points higher than this year's national average of 90 percent.

ACC Again Leads the Way in U.S. News & World Report "Best Colleges" Rankings

- For the 18th consecutive year – and now with 18 member institutions – the Atlantic Coast Conference leads the way nationally among Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conferences in the "Best Colleges" rankings released by U.S. News & World Report.
 - This year's 51.7 average rank of ACC schools is the best among all FBS conferences.
 - Two ACC schools rank in the top 10 – only one other school in an FBS conference is in the top 10.
 - Four ACC schools rank in the top 20 – no other FBS conference has more than two.
 - Six ACC schools are among the top 30 in this year's rankings, also the most among all FBS conferences.
 - The ACC has 14 member schools among the top 70 – no other FBS conference has more.

FOOTBALL SUCCESS

The ACC has solidified its reputation as a powerhouse in college football over the last decade, producing elite teams, top-tier coaching talent and Heisman-caliber athletes.

Elite Presence on the National Stage

• In eight of the past 12 seasons, the ACC has been represented in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game—an elite streak that began with Florida State's thrilling 34-31 win over Auburn in the final BCS title game in January 2014 (2013 season).

Four CFP Teams, One Conference

• The ACC is one of the few conferences to have sent four different programs to the College Football Playoff:

- Clemson (2015–2020, 2024)
- Florida State (2014)
- Notre Dame (2020, as a full ACC member during the pandemic season)
- SMU (2024)

Playoff Success That Stands Out

• With six all-time College Football Playoff victories, the ACC ranks third nationally behind only the SEC (18) and Big Ten (11).

Unmatched Depth in Bowl Season

• The 2024 season saw a league-record 13 ACC teams earn bowl eligibility, tying for the most among all Power 4 conferences. This marks the 24th consecutive year the ACC has secured six or more bowl bids, excluding the unique 2020 season. The league has sent 10 teams or more to the postseason in seven of the last 11 years, and since 2014, ranks second among all conferences with 105 total postseason appearances.

Top Coaching Talent Across the Board

• Seven active ACC head coaches currently rank among the top 60 in the FBS in career winning percentage (at least one full season of coaching):

- Dabo Swinney (Clemson)
- Fran Brown (Syracuse)
- Rhett Lashlee (SMU)
- Mike Norvell (Florida State)
- Jeff Brohm (Louisville)
- Dave Doeren (NC State)
- Manny Diaz (Duke)

Heisman Pedigree

• Over the last 12 years, eight ACC players have finished in the top five of the Heisman Trophy voting a total of 10 times, including two winners:

- Jameis Winston, Florida State – 2013 winner
- Lamar Jackson, Louisville – 2016 winner, third in 2017
- Deshaun Watson, Clemson – 2nd in 2016, 3rd in 2015
- Trevor Lawrence, Clemson – 2nd in 2020
- Kenny Pickett, Pitt – 3rd in 2021
- Andre Williams, Boston College – 5th in 2013
- Jordan Travis, Florida State – 5th in 2023
- Cameron Ward, Miami – 4th in 2024

ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME SUCCESSExpanding the Field of Contenders

• With SMU making its first appearance in 2024, 14 different programs have now competed in the ACC Football Championship Game since it began in 2005—highlighting the league's depth and competitive balance.

• Clemson leads all schools with 10 appearances, followed by Virginia Tech and Florida State, each with six.

Champions Across the Conference

• Since the inaugural title game in 2005, six different schools have claimed the ACC Championship:

- Clemson: 9 titles (most in league history)
- Florida State: 5 titles, including the 2023 crown
- Virginia Tech: 3 titles
- Georgia Tech, Wake Forest, and Pitt: 1 title each

A Proven Draw in Charlotte

• The ACC Championship Game has been a major event in Charlotte, selling out five times at Bank of America Stadium—in 2010, 2011, 2015, 2017, and 2020—demonstrating the passion of ACC fans and the game's regional appeal.

Charlotte: The Long-Term Home of ACC Championship Football

• In April 2018, the ACC and the Charlotte Sports Foundation solidified a 10-year partnership to keep the title game in Charlotte through 2030. The game will continue to be played annually at Bank of America Stadium on the first Saturday of December, maintaining one of college football's premier championship traditions.

ACC & THE NFL DRAFTAnother Impressive Draft Class

• The ACC saw 42 players selected in the 2025 NFL Draft, representing 15 different institutions across the conference. This ties the league's highest single-draft total since 2021 (not including Notre Dame's nine picks that year).

Consistent Pipeline to the Pros

• Since the 2000 NFL Draft, the ACC has produced 853 total draft picks, including 122 first-round selections—ranking third among all conferences in both categories.

Top-Three in Recent Draft Production

• Over the last 12 drafts (2013–2025), the ACC has had 469 players selected, the third-most of any conference during that span. Notably, the ACC has seen 40 or more players drafted in three of the last five years.

No. 1 Overall Picks: A Legacy of Excellence

• Current ACC programs have produced 17 No. 1 overall picks in the history of the NFL Draft. Most recently, Miami quarterback Cameron Ward was selected first overall by the Tennessee Titans in the 2025 NFL Draft. Several ACC schools have contributed multiple top picks over the years:

- Stanford: 4 (Bobby Garrett – 1954, Jim Plunkett – 1971, John Elway – 1983, Andrew Luck – 2012)
- Miami: 3 (Vinny Testaverde – 1987, Russell Maryland – 1991, Cameron Ward – 2025)
- Cal: 2 (Steve Bartkowski – 1975, Jared Goff – 2016)
- Virginia Tech: 2 (Bruce Smith – 1985, Michael Vick – 2001)
- Clemson: 1 (Trevor Lawrence – 2021)
- Florida State: 1 (Jameis Winston – 2015)
- NC State: 1 (Mario Williams – 2006)
- SMU: 1 (Kyle Rote – 1951)
- Syracuse: 1 (Ernie Davis – 1962)
- Virginia: 1 (Bill Dudley – 1942)

Additionally, NC State's Roman Gabriel was selected No. 2 overall in the 1962 NFL Draft but was the No. 1 overall pick in the AFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

2024 ACC FOOTBALL NOTEBOOK

GREATNESS JUST GOT GREATER

■ The ACC Board of Directors voted on Sept. 1, 2023, to formally admit the University of California (Cal), Southern Methodist University (SMU) and Stanford University to the Atlantic Coast Conference. Cal, SMU and Stanford joined the ACC as full members with full voting participation effective July 1, 2024 (SMU) and August 2, 2024 (Cal and Stanford). The decision followed the submission of letters of application from all three institutions.

■ The additions of Cal, SMU and Stanford enhance and strengthen the ACC academically, athletically and financially and create a true national conference that spans coast to coast. The incoming universities enrich the league's competitiveness in all sports and further demonstrate the ACC's commitment to broad-based programs for both women and men.

■ Cal, SMU and Stanford will begin competing in the ACC across their respective sponsored sports starting in the fall of 2024-25.

■ As part of this year's efforts, the ACC announced in September 2024 that it will remodel a local Charlotte Mecklenburg School (CMS) space as the conference pledges to make an impact within the Charlotte community.

■ The conference is pleased to announce Statesville Road Elementary School will be the recipient of a $50,000 Extra Yard makeover. In addition to the Extra Yard makeover, the ACC has invited all the students and teachers of Statesville Road Elementary to the 2024 ACC Football Championship Game.

Fans will help determine the areas of funding as part of the EYFT activation located within ACC Fan Fest.

(ESPN Stats)

■ A total of 13 ACC placekickers combined to make 36 field goals of 50 or more yards in 2024.

ACC'S ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH

■ Clemson's Dabo Swinney, in his 17th season at the helm of the Tigers' program, has recorded 180 wins overall. ■ With Mack Brown not returning to UNC next season, one of the only three active coaches to win a national title resides in the ACC. Dabo Swinney led Clemson to national titles in 2016 and 2018. Brown won a national title with Texas in 2005.

WATCH LISTS WATCHING

■ ACC head football coaches headlined the 2024 Dodd Trophy Preseason Watch List, as announced by the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Foundation and the Peach Bowl, as six coaches across the ACC were named to the preseason watch list, the most of any conference.

■ Four ACC head coaches were named to the updated 2024 Dodd Trophy Midseason Watch List - Mario Cristobal (Miami), Rhett Lashlee (SMU), Pat Narduzzi (Pitt) and Dabo Swinney (Clemson). First-year head coaches are ineligible for the honor.

■ The same four ACC head coaches mentioned above were also named to the Paul "Bear" Bryant Awards College Football Coach of the Year watch list.

FRAN BROWN EARNS TWO NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR AWARDS

■ First-year Syracuse head coach Fran Brown was recognized for his first season at Syracuse, earning the 2024 Paul "Bear" Bryant Newcomer Coach of the Year Award, presented by The American Heart Association, and the 2024 Steve Spurrier First-Year Coach Award, presented by Chris Doering Mortgage and awarded by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

■ Named the head coach on November 28, 2023, Brown immediately made an impact, leading the Orange to a 10-win season in his first year. It marks the first time since 2018 and just the third time since 2000 that the Orange won 10 games or more in a season.

■ Syracuse finished the season ranked No. 21 in the final College Football Playoff rankings and ended the regular season ranked in the top 25 in both the Associated Press (AP) and the US LBM Coaches Poll.

LASHLEE NAMED A FINALIST X2

■ SMU head coach Rhett Lashlee was a finalist for both the 2024 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America, in conjunction with the Allstate Sugar Bowl, and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award presented by The American Heart Association.

■ Named the 2024 ACC Coach of the Year, Lashlee led No. 10 SMU to a perfect conference regular-season record and a spot in the 2024 ACC Football Championship game in the Mustangs' first year in the league.

■ The Mustangs made their first College Football Playoff appearance, earning the No. 11 seed. SMU went 11-3 on the season and posted an unblemished conference season, going 8-0 in league play. The 11-win season was the fourth in program history, and the second consecutive season, while SMU was unbeaten in conference play in back-to-back seasons.

■ Lashlee was named the 2024 ACC Coach of the Year and was a semifinalist for the George Munger National Coach of the Year Award. He also took home Texas Football Coach of the Year honors from Dave Campbell's Texas Football publication.

MACK BROWN TO NOT RETURN IN 2025

■ North Carolina announced on November 26 that Mack Brown would not return next season. Brown, 73, coached the Tar Heels in the regular-season finale against NC State on Saturday, November 30.

■ Mack Brown made college football history in 2023, becoming the first head coach to win 100 games at two different FBS schools. He recorded 158 wins at Texas from 1998-2013 and posted 113 wins in 16 seasons at UNC.

CLAWSON ANNOUNCED RESIGNATION AS WF HC

■ After 11 seasons leading the Wake Forest Demon Deacons football program, Dave Clawson announced his resignation as head coach. Clawson left an indelible legacy as one of the most successful and impactful leaders in Wake Forest Athletics history.

■ Since his arrival in December 2013, Clawson revitalized the program, overseeing the most successful stretch in Wake Forest football history. Under his guidance, the Demon Deacons reached new heights, including seven consecutive bowl appearances (2016-2022), an Atlantic Division title in 2021, and the program's first-ever top-10 national ranking - in back-to-back seasons (2021 and 2022). His teams consistently broke records on the field while maintaining academic excellence, earning national recognition for their success in the classroom.

■ Beyond his 11-year run at Wake Forest, Clawson remains the only coach to win at least 10 games in a season at four Division I schools (Fordham, Richmond, Bowling Green and Wake Forest).

SMU's Lashlee Named 2024 ACC Coach of the Year

release is from December 5, 2025*

After leading No. 8 SMU to a perfect conference regular-season record and a spot in the 2024 Atlantic Coast Conference Football Championship game, Rhett Lashlee has been named the ACC Coach of the Year for the 2024 season.

Lashlee is the first coach to win the award for SMU, which is in its first year as a member of the ACC.

Heading into the 20th ACC Football Championship Game on Saturday, December 7, versus No. 17 Clemson, the No. 8 nationally ranked Mustangs are 11-1 on the season and posted an unblemished conference season, going 8-0 in league play. The 11-win season is the fourth in program history, and the second consecutive season, while SMU has been unbeaten in conference play in back-to-back seasons.

SMU enters championship weekend as one of only two Power 4 teams to go undefeated in conference play this season and one of only six Power 4 teams, plus Notre Dame, with one loss or fewer this year.

The Mustangs are on a nine-game winning streak, the longest active streak in the ACC and the fourth-longest active streak in the country. The nine-game winning streak is also tied for the fifth-longest in program history.

Following a win over then-No. 22 Louisville on October 5, Lashlee and company jumped into the Associated Press Top 25 Poll at No. 25 and have not looked back. The Mustangs have been ranked in the AP Poll in each of the last nine weeks, including moving up to as high as No. 8 in the most recent poll. The Mustangs have also been ranked in all five of the College Football Playoff Rankings this season, coming in at No. 8 in this week's rankings.

In three seasons under Lashlee, the Mustangs are 29-10 overall and 21-3 in conference play. The Mustangs are 19-1 over their last 20 regular-season games, 20-2 in their last 22 games and 15-1 over the last 16 home games under Lashlee.

North Carolina's Willie Lampkin Earns 2024 ACC Jacobs Blocking Trophy

release is from December 2, 2025*

North Carolina offensive lineman Willie Lampkin has been voted the winner of the 2024 Jacobs Blocking Trophy, the Atlantic Coast Conference announced at the conclusion of the regular season.

The Jacobs Blocking Trophy has been awarded annually since 1953 to the player selected as the most outstanding blocker in the ACC by a poll of the league's head coaches and defensive coordinators. The trophy is given in memory of William P. Jacobs, who served as president of Presbyterian College from 1935 to 1945.

Lampkin, a 5-11, 290-pound senior from Lakeland, Florida, has played and started in every game for the Tar Heels the last two years after transferring in after being a three-year starter along the offensive line at Coastal Carolina.

Ranked as the highest-graded guard among all Power 4 offensive linemen by Pro Football Focus, Lampkin has not allowed a sack all season long over 473 pass-blocking reps. He has also helped pave the way for a North Carolina offense that has averaged 423.4 total yards of offense per game this season, including an average of 189.5 rushing yards per game led by running back Omarion Hampton, who leads the ACC and ranks second nationally in rushing yards (1,660) and rushing yards per game (138.3).

Duke's Eli Pancel Named 2024 Brian Piccolo Award Recipient

release is from December 2, 2025*

Duke graduate student wide receiver Eli Pancel has been named the recipient of the Atlantic Coast Conference's 2024 Brian Piccolo Award.

The Piccolo Award has been given annually since 1970 in memory of the late Brian Piccolo to the "most courageous" football player in the ACC. As a standout running back at Wake Forest, Piccolo was the ACC Athlete of the Year in 1965 and played for the Chicago Bears before his career was cut short when he was diagnosed with cancer. His courageous fight against the disease was an inspiration to the Bears and the entire football community.

In October of 2022, Pancel suffered a broken left ankle, which prevented him from finishing the season. Following that recovery and during the 2023 training camp, he experienced a fracture dislocation of his right ankle, which caused him to miss the entire 2023 season.

Named to the Comeback Player of the Year Award watch list by the College Sports Communicators (CSC), in association with The Associated Press and the Fiesta Bowl, Pancel has started all 12 games this season and caught 55 passes for 741 yards and nine touchdowns. His nine receiving scores lead the Blue Devils and are tied for fourth in the ACC.

Against No. 22 SMU (October 26), Pancel set a career-high with 11 receptions and 138 receiving yards, becoming the first Blue Devil with double-digit receptions against a ranked foe since T.J. Rahming tallied 10 catches for 100 yards against No. 15 North Carolina on November 10, 2016. On Senior Day versus Virginia Tech (November 23), Pancel set a career-high with three touchdown catches and 188 receiving yards, including an 86-yard touchdown catch and run.

In 56 career games, including 26 starts, he has compiled 125 receptions for 1,653 yards with 14 touchdowns and added seven rushes for 40 yards and two scores. He has averaged 13.2 yards per catch and 5.7 yards per rush in his career as a Blue Devil and has caught at least one pass in 27 consecutive games played, dating back to the 2021 season.

In 2019, Pancel was an Honorable Mention Freshman All-America selection by Pro Football Focus.

Pancel becomes the seventh student-athlete from Duke to earn the ACC's Brian Piccolo Award and the first since defensive lineman Scott Youmans in 1993.

Wake Forest's Taylor Morin to Receive ACC's 2024 Jim Tatum Award

release is from December 2, 2025*

Wake Forest redshirt senior wide receiver Taylor Morin has been named the recipient of the 2024 Jim Tatum Award.

The award is given annually in memory of the late Jim Tatum to the top senior student-athlete among the league's football players. Tatum, a two-time ACC Coach of the Year, coached in the 1950s at both Maryland and North Carolina and believed strongly in the concept of the student-athlete.

A semifinalist for the 2024 William V. Campbell Trophy, which is presented annually by the National Football Foundation (NFF) and the College Football Hall of Fame to the best football scholar-athlete in the nation for their combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership, Morin has posted a career 3.77 cumulative grade point average while working toward a master's degree in business administration after earning his bachelor's degree in engineering.

A member of both the Dean's List and AD Honor Roll in 11 of 11 semesters at Wake Forest, Morin is also a four-time member of the All-ACC Academic Team, a five-time member of the ACC Academic Honor Roll and a three-time Military Bowl 3M STEM Scholar-Athlete Program honoree (2022 and 2023).

The fifth-year wideout played in 61 games, starting 54 for the Demon Deacons in his collegiate career. He totaled 227 receptions, 2,974 receiving yards and 21 receiving touchdowns. He also totaled 4,019 all-purpose yards over his college career, including 809 punt return yards and 236 kick return yards.

In the regular-season finale versus Duke (November 30), Morin became Wake Forest's all-time leader in receiving yards with 2,974, passing former NFL player Ricky Proehl, who had 2,929 yards in the late 1980s.

Morin also ranks in the top five in Wake Forest's program history in receptions and receiving touchdowns. He ranks second in school history in career punt return yards.

This season, Morin hauled in 64 catches for 756 yards and two touchdowns. He also returned three kickoffs for 66 yards and 14 punts for 238 yards and a touchdown.

Morin is the seventh Wake Forest football student-athlete to be honored with the ACC's Jim Tatum Award and the first Demon Deacon to win the award since Zach Tom in 2021.

2024 NATIONAL HONORS & AWARDS RECOGNITION

WARD WINS DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

Miami senior quarterback Cam Ward was voted the 2024 Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award winner, as announced on ESPN's The Home Depot College Football Awards on December 12.

Ward is the third Hurricane to receive the country's oldest and most prestigious quarterback trophy, joining Vinny Testaverde (1986) and Gino Torretta (1992).

The first player from Miami to be named the ACC Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year, the All-ACC First-Team selection at quarterback led the nation in passing touchdowns (39), points responsible for (272) and Total QBR (88.0) and ranked second in all of FBS in passing yards (4,313), and passing yards per game (331.8). Ward also ranked third nationally in total offensive yards per game (347.5) and was fourth in yards per pass attempt (9.50) and passing efficiency (172.2).

This season, Ward set new single-season records for Miami in several offensive categories, including passing touchdowns, passing yards, pass completions, and completion percentage. He also became the first Miami player to achieve seven consecutive 300-yard performances.

Ward, who passed for over 300 yards in 10 games this season, threw for over 18,000 yards over his collegiate career, which ranks in the top five in NCAA history. He also recorded 158 career touchdown passes, which set a new NCAA Division I career record.

In his lone season at Miami, Ward guided the Hurricanes to their first 10-win campaign in seven years. He led the top offense in the country all season long, as Miami led the nation in total offense (537.2 yards per game) and scoring offense (43.9 points per game), as well as third-down conversion percentage (.563). The offense also ranked top-10 nationally in passing offense (348.2 yards per game), first downs made (351), team passing efficiency (169.24), time of possession (32:43) and red zone offense (.923).

During the regular season, Ward tied for the nation's lead in Davey O'Brien Great 8 selections, collecting five weekly honors.

UNC'S CRAFT RECEIVES CAPITAL ONE ORANGE BOWL-FWAA COURAGE AWARD

North Carolina's Tylee Craft is the 23rd annual recipient of the Capital One Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award, an honor recognizing his incredible perseverance and strength in the face of adversity. The beloved fifth-year senior wide receiver passed away in October 2024 after a lengthy two-year battle with Stage 4 lung cancer while remaining an integral part of the Tar Heels' program as a student coach.

Craft was diagnosed with Stage 4 lung cancer on March 14, 2022, and doctors revealed he was weeks away from dying before he immediately began aggressive chemotherapy and immunotherapy treatments at UNC Lineberger Cancer Center. Despite the cancer spreading throughout his body and to his brain, Craft continued to attend every practice, meeting and team function while undergoing treatment.

In May, Craft earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science/sports administration and continued furthering his education, working toward his master's in applied professional studies.

"I want to thank the Orange Bowl Committee and Football Writers Association of America for recognizing Tylee and his battle with cancer," said Craft's mother in September. "As Tylee was going through his journey, one thing that was important to him was to spread awareness so people knew they weren't alone. By continuing to share Tylee's story, he can continue to have an impact on people going through what he went through, and hopefully, provide inspiration to others. Tylee is an example that we may encounter many defeats during our lives, but we must not be defeated. Life is not what happens to you, but how you respond to it. Throughout Tylee's battle, he continued to live his dreams and not his fears, and that is a great message for everyone who encounters difficult times."

A native of Sumter, S.C., Craft's impact has extended far beyond football. He was named the 2022 Disney Spirit Award winner and has served as an ambassador for the White Ribbon Project, which raises awareness for lung cancer. Craft has also visited patients at UNC Children's Hospital and helped raise more than $100,000 for the SECU Family House at UNC Hospitals through the Mack and Sally Brown Ladies Clinic.

Craft's inspirational journey has earned him recognition on a national level, including being named to the Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion team. A former three-star wide receiver prospect, the 6-foot-5 Craft played in 11 games for North Carolina in the 2020 and 2021 seasons.

His courage and resilience throughout his journey touched countless lives, and the Tar Heel community, along with sports fans across the nation, rallied behind him. His legacy as a leader, both on and off the field, continues to inspire others. Craft's story will be honored during the 2025 College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Capital One Orange Bowl. His unwavering spirit, dedication to his team, and fight against cancer remain a testament to his strength and character.

The Courage Award was first presented by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) in 2002. A select group of writers from the FWAA vote on the winner each year. The requirements for nomination include displaying courage on or off the field, including overcoming an injury or physical handicap, preventing a disaster or living through hardship.

SHOUGH EARNS COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR HONORS

College Sports Communicators, in association with The Associated Press (AP) and the Fiesta Bowl, named Louisville quarterback Tyler Shough as one of three winners of college football's 2024 Comeback Player of the Year Award on December 17.

Since 2018, the Comeback Player of the Year Award has recognized college football student-athletes for overcoming injury, illness or other circumstances. At the conclusion of each season, in a vote by a panel of Associated Press college football writers and sports information directors, three college football student-athletes are honored as Comeback Player of the Year Award winners. They will be honored during an on-field ceremony at the 2024 College Football Playoff Quarterfinal at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl in Glendale, Arizona.

Shough's inspiring comeback story reflects six years of resilience and determination. Beginning his college football journey at Oregon in 2018 and concluding at Louisville in 2024, he overcame a series of setbacks to finish his career on a high note. This season, Shough led the Cardinals to an 8-4 record and a berth in the Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl against Washington on Tuesday, December 31, in El Paso, Texas.

Shough's path has been anything but easy. At Oregon, he showcased his potential as the Ducks' primary quarterback in 2020, leading them to a Pac-12 Championship. Seeking new challenges, he transferred to Texas Tech, where injuries defined his next three seasons. Shoulder and collarbone injuries sidelined him after just four games in 2021 and seven contests in 2022, while a broken left fibula ended his 2023 season after just four games.

In 2024, Shough arrived at Louisville, embracing a fresh start with remarkable mental and physical toughness. Starting all 12 games, he passed for over 300 yards in four contests, including back-to-back performances against conference foes Miami and Boston College. He added four touchdown passes in games against both Miami and Austin Peay.

He finished the regular season ranked in the top 30 of FBS quarterbacks with 3,195 passing yards (14th), 266.3 passing yards per game (15th), 23 passing touchdowns (22nd), 75.5 total QBR (22nd) and 8.21 yards per pass attempt (24th). The Cardinals' quarterback totaled 267.8 yards of total offense per game.

Shough is joined by Utah State defensive back Ike Larsen and South Carolina running back Raheim "Rocket" Sanders as the 2024 Comeback Players of the Year.

2024 NATIONAL HONORS & AWARDS RECOGNITION

EZEIRUAKU WINS TED HENDRICKS AWARD

Boston College's Donovan Ezeiruaku was named the winner of the 2024 Ted Hendricks Award, which honors the most exceptional defensive end in college football.

The senior defensive end earned Consensus First-Team All-American honors, making him the 13th Consensus All-American in Boston College history and the first since 2013. Ezeiruaku received first-team recognition from the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), the Associated Press (AP) and The Sporting News. In addition, he was selected as a Second-Team All-American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation.

Ezeiruaku was named the ACC Defensive Player of the Year and earned a spot on the First-Team All-ACC Team. He was a semifinalist for several prestigious awards, including the Bednarik Award, Lombardi Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award. Additionally, he received the Bulger Lowe Award from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston and the Season Gold Helmet Award from the New England Football Writers.

Ezeiruaku led all of FBS in sacks per game at 1.38 and was tops in the country in total sacks in the regular season with 16.5, which tied the BC single-season record. He posted at least one sack in eight games and two or more in six games.

He also led the Eagles with 80 tackles on the season. His 20.5 tackles-for-loss were a team-high and ranked second in FBS. Ezeiruaku added three forced fumbles and 15 quarterback hurries.

CAM WARD WINS MANNING AWARD

Miami senior quarterback Cam Ward was selected as the winner of the 2024 Manning Award, presented by the Allstate Sugar Bowl to the top quarterback in the nation.

Ward is the first Miami quarterback to earn the honor, which started in 2004. He's the fourth player from the ACC to be recognized, joining Matt Ryan (Boston College) in 2007, Jameis Winston (Florida State) in 2013 and Deshaun Watson (Clemson) in both 2015 and 2016.

The Manning Award, now in its 21st year, was created by the Allstate Sugar Bowl to honor the college football accomplishments of Archie, Peyton and Eli Manning. It is the only quarterback award that takes into consideration the candidates' bowl and playoff performances in its balloting. The award is voted on by a panel of local and national media, as well as each of the Mannings.

Ward's selection as the Manning Award winner adds to a list of national postseason accolades that include winning the Davey O'Brien Award and being a Heisman Trophy finalist. He was also a finalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose awards, in addition to being a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award.

The first player from Miami to be named the ACC Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year, the All-ACC First-Team selection at quarterback led the nation in passing touchdowns (39), points responsible for (272) and Total QBR (88.0), and ranked second in all of FBS in passing yards (4,313) and passing yards per game (331.8). Ward also ranked third nationally in total offensive yards per game (347.5) and was fourth in yards per pass attempt (9.50) and passing efficiency (172.2).

This season, Ward set new single-season records for Miami in several offensive categories, including passing touchdowns, passing yards, pass completions, and completion percentage. He also became the first Miami player to achieve seven consecutive 300-yard performances.

Ward, who passed for over 300 yards in 10 games this season, threw for over 18,000 yards over his collegiate career, which ranks in the top five in NCAA history. He also recorded 158 career touchdown passes, which set a new NCAA Division I career record.

In his lone season at Miami, Ward guided the Hurricanes to their first 10-win campaign in seven years. He led the top offense in the country all season long, as Miami led the nation in total offense (537.2 yards per game) and scoring offense (43.9 points per game), as well as third-down conversion percentage (.563). The offense also ranked top-10 nationally in passing offense (348.2 yards per game), first downs made (351), team passing efficiency (169.24), time of possession (32:43) and red zone offense (.923).

Other finalists for this year's Manning Award were: Carson Beck (Georgia), Jaxson Dart (Ole Miss), Quinn Ewers (Texas), Dillon Gabriel (Oregon), John Mateer (Washington State), Kyle McCord (Syracuse), Garrett Nussmeier (LSU), Kurtis Rourke (Indiana), and Shedeur Sanders (Colorado).

BILL O'BRIEN

Head Coach

Second Season at Boston College

Brown '92

- Bill O'Brien was hired as the 37th head coach in Boston College football history on Feb. 9, 2024. He went 7-6 in his first season, leading the Eagles to the Pinstripe Bowl.
- A 32-year coaching veteran in the college and professional ranks, O'Brien was elevated to his first head coaching post at Penn State in 2012. He guided the Nittany Lions to an overall record of 15-9 and 10-6 Big Ten mark during the span of two seasons while directing the program through a postseason ban. He was named the head coach of the NFL's Houston Texans in 2014, leading the franchise to a 52-48 record, four AFC South Division titles, and four playoff appearances - including two Wild Card round wins between 2014 and 2020.
- While with Penn State, O'Brien was recognized in 2012 with a pair of national coaching awards - the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year and the George Munger Award for Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club. The Nittany Lions' eight wins in 2012 were the most by a first-year head coach in Penn State history, earning O'Brien Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. In 2013, O'Brien and Penn State won seven games, including two top-25 victories, downing No. 18 Michigan at home and winning at No. 14 Wisconsin. The Nittany Lions boasted two first-team All-Americans during his tenure - linebacker Michael Mauti (2012) and wide receiver Allen Robinson (2013) - and 10 All-Big Ten selections.
- Before entering the NFL, O'Brien gained 14 years of experience at the collegiate level, including 12 years in the ACC. His coaching career began at his alma mater Brown, serving as the tight ends coach (1993) and inside linebackers coach (1994). He then began an eight-year stretch at Georgia Tech as a graduate assistant (1995-97), running backs coach (1998-00) and offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2001-02). O'Brien then spent two seasons as the running backs coach at Maryland (2003-04) before a two-year stint as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Duke (2005-06).

JUSTIN WILCOX*Head Coach*Ninth Season at California*Oregon '99

- Justin Wilcox has compiled a long list of accomplishments and signature wins as the Travers Family Head Football Coach and is in his ninth campaign on the job at Cal.
- Through eight seasons, Wilcox has compiled 42 wins, which are the sixth-most victories by a head coach in California football history.
- In 2018 and 2019, Wilcox led Cal to back-to-back winning campaigns and bowl games for the first time since 2008 and 2009, then returned to a bowl in 2023 and 2024.
- Against Stanford, Cal has won five of the last six Big Game meetings, including four in a row overall (2021-24) and three straight on The Farm (2019, '21, '23). Wilcox is the first Cal head coach to win the Big Game three straight times on the road since Pappy Waldorf captured six straight at Stanford from 1937-51.
- In 2024, Wilcox led the Bears to bowl-eligibility for the fourth time as head coach, while five of Cal's seven losses were by a combined 17 points.

MANNY DIAZ

Head Coach
Second Season at Duke
Florida State '95

- Manny Diaz was named the 23rd head football coach at Duke University on December 7, 2023. He won his first five games of the 2024 season and finished 9-4 overall, earning a trip to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl.
- In Diaz's 27 years of coaching, four have been spent as a head coach and 15 as a defensive coordinator, including 10 at the FBS Power 5 level. Diaz has coached in 24 bowl games, including two BCS National Championship games, and led the Miami Hurricanes to three consecutive bowl appearances during his time as head coach.
- In his first year in Durham in 2024, Diaz led the Blue Devils to a 5-3 ledger in ACC action, highlighted by victories over in-state rivals North Carolina, NC State and Wake Forest. He tied Mike Elko for the most wins by a Duke first-year head coach and joined Elko and Fred Goldsmith as the only three head coaches to guide the program to bowl appearances in their initial seasons.
- In year one of Diaz's leadership, the Blue Devils showed his hallmark attacking defense, finishing second nationally in tackles-for-loss per game (8.9), second in fumbles recovered (14), fourth in sacks per game (3.3), seventh in turnovers gained (27) and 24th in turnover margin (+0.62).
- Since 2016, Diaz's defenses have been a force behind the line of scrimmage, ranking in the top-10 nationally in tackles-for-loss each year: No. 2 in 2024 (8.9), No. 2 in 2023 (8.4), No. 5 in 2022 (8.0), No. 9 in 2021 (7.75), No. 4 in 2020 (8.6), No. 4 in 2019 (8.3), No. 1 in 2018 (10.5), No. 4 in 2017 (8.5) and No. 5 in 2016 (8.3).

BRENT KEY

Head Coach

Fourth Season at Georgia Tech

(Third full season)

Georgia Tech '01

- Brent Key, a Georgia Tech alumnus and football letterwinner, was officially named the 21st head coach in Tech football history on November 29, 2022.
- Key's 14 wins in his first two full seasons at the helm of the Yellow Jackets are tied for the third-most in Georgia Tech history, behind only College Football Hall of Famers Paul Johnson and William Alexander.
- He has led his alma mater to consecutive winning seasons and back-to-back bowl berths for the first time since 2013-14, and to consecutive fourth-place finishes in the Atlantic Coast Conference, after being picked to finish 12th in the 14-team conference in 2023 and 10th in the 17-team league in 2024. The back-to-back fourth-place showings have been spurred by Tech's gaudy 6-1 versus nationally ranked ACC opponents since Key took the reins of the program five games into the 2022 campaign. Ten Yellow Jackets were named All-ACC in 2024, Tech's most all-conference selections since 2014.
- Key took the reins of the program after leading the Yellow Jackets to a 4-4 record over the final eight games of the 2022 season as interim head coach. The four wins included two road victories over nationally ranked opponents – a 26-21 win at No. 24 Pitt in his first game at the helm on Oct. 1 and a 21-17 triumph at No. 11 North Carolina on Nov. 19.
- The overall and conference win totals were Tech's highest since 2018, as was its fourth-place finish in the ACC Coastal Division standings (the Jackets defeated all three teams that finished ahead of them in the division standings – North Carolina, Pitt and Duke).
- Prior to being named interim head coach on Sept. 26, 2022, Key served as the Yellow Jackets' assistant head coach/offensive line coach/run game coordinator for three-plus seasons. In his four seasons at his alma mater, Georgia Tech's run game has produced an All-American, three All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorees and finished in the top half of the ACC in rushing offense twice. Key has also mentored a pair of All-ACC offensive linemen.

JEFF BROHM

Head Coach

Third Season at Louisville
Louisville '94

- Jeff Brohm was named Louisville's 24th full-time head football coach on Dec. 8, 2022, and immediately put the Cardinals in position to compete for the school's first Atlantic Coast Conference title and has the program on the verge of becoming a consistent player on the national stage.
- The 2024 campaign saw the Cards finish at 9-4 in a season that featured the school's first win over No. 11 Clemson, the highest-ranked opponent that Louisville defeated on the road, and snapping the school's five-game losing streak over arch-rival Kentucky. Louisville also dropped four one-score losses to a pair of playoff teams (Notre Dame and SMU) and lost to nationally ranked Miami, 52-45.
- Led by a balanced offensive attack, Brohm's 2024 team was tied for eighth nationally in scoring offense at 36.5 points per game and was the only school in the country to score 24 or more points in every game during the season. Louisville also posted a top 15 offense, ranking 13th overall with an average of 449.2 yards per game and was fifth in the country in yards per play at 6.85.
- Overall, the Cardinals ranked first nationally in scrimmage plays over 40 yards and second in plays of 50 or more yards.
- Led by the trio of quarterback Tyler Shough, wide receiver Ja'Corey Brooks, and freshman sensation Isaac Brown, Brohm's offense produced the school's third season ever with a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver and rusher. Shough finished with 3,195 passing yards, while Brooks closed with 1,013 receiving yards and Brown ended with 1,173 yards -- the school's first true freshman to rush for over 1,000 yards.

MARIO CRISTOBAL

Head Coach

Fourth Season at Miami

Miami '93

- Mario Cristobal, who helped lead the University of Miami to two national championships in 1989 and 1991 as a standout offensive lineman, was named the University's 26th football head coach on December 6, 2021.
- In his third season at the helm of the Hurricanes in 2024, Cristobal led Miami to its first 10-win season since 2017 and only its second since 2003. 17 Hurricanes earned all-conference recognition under his watch in 2024, as Miami completed its first true undefeated season at home since 2002. At the end of the 2024 regular season, Miami was one of only seven teams in the country to rank in the top 25 of FBS in both total offense and total defense, highlighted by the nation's No. 1 offense by nearly every metric.
- The Hurricanes showed tremendous growth from Year 1 (2022) to Year 2 (2023) under Cristobal's direction; Miami was No. 24 in total defense and No. 25 in total offense in all of FBS in 2023, jumping 40 spots in total defense (up from No. 64) and 60 spots in total offense (from No. 85). Miami pulled in the top two recruiting classes in program history in the modern era by every ranking in his two full cycles – the No. 7 class in the nation in 2023 and the No. 4 class in the nation in 2024.
- One of college football's most highly regarded coaches, Cristobal returned to his alma mater after leading the University of Oregon to three straight Pac-12 Conference championship game appearances and two Pac-12 titles. At the time of his hiring, he was the only coach in the nation whose team had played in a Power Five conference championship game in his final three seasons.

BILL BELICHICK

Head Coach

First Season at North Carolina

Wesleyan '75

- Eight-time Super Bowl champion Bill Belichick, architect of one of the greatest sports dynasties of all time and renowned as one of the top leaders to ever coach the game, was named the University of North Carolina's new head football coach on December 11, 2024.
- A three-time AP NFL Coach of the Year (2003, 2007, 2010), Belichick has an all-time NFL head coaching record of 333-178 (.652) and is only 14 NFL wins away from the overall wins record. He is a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 2000s and the 2010s, and he was also a member of the NFL's 100th Anniversary All-Time Team and holds the record for most NFL Playoff victories (31).
- Belichick began his coaching career in 1975 as an assistant for the Baltimore Colts and became the defensive coordinator of the New York Giants in 1985, where he won two Super Bowls under Bill Parcells. He was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns in 1991 and was at the helm for five seasons. He also coached with the New England Patriots and New York Jets before becoming the head coach of the Patriots in 2000.
- In 24 seasons, New England won 17 AFC East titles, made 13 AFC Championship appearances, and nine Super Bowl appearances.
- Belichick's father, Steve, was an assistant football coach for the Tar Heels from 1953-55 before going on to become an assistant football coach for more than three decades at the United States Naval Academy. There, Bill Belichick attended team meetings and film sessions with his father. He knew how to diagram complex plays before he became a teenager and credits his dad for teaching him the details of football at a young age.
- He graduated in 1975 from Wesleyan University, where he played football and lacrosse. He has three children: Amanda, Stephen and Brian.

DAVE DOEREN

Head Coach
13th Season at NC State
Drake '93

• Dave Doeren enters his 13th season as head coach at NC State, where he is the all-time career wins leader in school history with 87 victories. He has built a culture based on toughness, hard work and a team-first attitude during his tenure, which is the sixth-longest for any coach in the FBS at his current school.

- In 2024, the Pack qualified for its 10th bowl game during Doeren's tenure, the most under any coach in program history. He has guided NC State to at least eight wins in six of the last eight seasons, with four nine-win campaigns in that time.
- Since 2020, Doeren's Wolfpack ranks second in the ACC in overall (40) and conference wins (26) since 2020 and 10 of his 12 Wolfpack squads have qualified for postseason bowls - the most of any coach in program history.
- Between 2017-25, 23 of his players were drafted by the NFL - including an ACC-best seven in 2017. Three of his players have gone on to be first-round picks, including OT Ikem Ekwonu in 2022, C Garrett Bradbury in 2019 and DE Bradley Chubb in 2018.

PAT NARDUZZI

Head Coach
11th Season at Pitt
Rhode Island '90

- Pat Narduzzi enters his 11th season as Pitt's head coach after assuming the duties on December 26, 2014.
- Narduzzi has compiled a 72-56 overall record as the Panthers' head coach. His 72 victories rank second all-time at Pitt, trailing only the legendary Jock Sutherland, who compiled 111 wins from 1924-38.
- From 2015-24, Narduzzi directed Pitt to 46 victories in ACC play, the conference's third-highest win total during that span, trailing only Clemson (71) and Miami (49).
- Narduzzi has coached 10 first-team All-Americans at Pitt. In 2024, linebacker Kyle Louis was named a first-team All-American by The Sporting News, becoming the first Pitt sophomore defensive player to earn that distinction since the legendary Hugh Green in 1978.
- Under Narduzzi's watch, Pitt continues to produce high-level NFL prospects. Over the four NFL drafts from 2021-24, the Panthers' 17 picks were the second most of any ACC program (trailing only Clemson's 19).
- Narduzzi directed a historic 2021 campaign, when the Panthers stormed to 11 victories and claimed their first outright conference title with a 45-21 triumph over Wake Forest in the ACC Championship Game. Pitt earned a No. 13 ranking in the final 2021 polls, its highest finish since 1982.

Head Coach
Fourth Season at SMU
Arkansas '06

- Head Coach Rhett Lashlee enters his fourth season in charge in 2024. Lashlee has a career head coaching record of 29-12 (.707), the second-most wins for a head coach in his first three years in program history.
- The 11 wins in 2024 marked back-to-back 11-win seasons for the first time in program history, which led to the Mustangs climbing as high as seventh in the Coaches Poll and eighth in the AP Poll in the regular season. SMU finished the year ranked 12th, the highest they have been since the final poll of the 1984 season when they finished eighth.
- The fourth-year coach has been the driving force in leading the Mustangs' return to prominence, illustrated by the program making its first appearance in the College Football Playoff (CFP) in 2024 as the No. 11 seed, continuing a program-record run of being bowl-eligible for a sixth straight season.
- Lashlee's rise to national prominence continued in 2024, leading SMU to a mark of 11-3 and 8-0 record in conference play in its inaugural season in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), which resulted in an appearance in the ACC Championship Game. For his success, he was named the ACC Coach of the Year, while also seeing 19 Mustangs garner All-ACC accolades.

FRANK REICH

Interim Head Coach

First Season at Stanford

Maryland '84

• Frank Reich was named Stanford's interim head football coach March 31, 2025 by Stanford Football General Manager Andrew Luck. The 36th head coach in program history, Reich will serve as interim head coach for the 2025 campaign.

- Reich is one of the sport's most well-respected offensive minds thanks to over 30 years in professional football, combining a 14-year playing career as an NFL quarterback with 18 seasons in various coaching roles. Reich was a member of six Super Bowl teams overall, four as a player with the Buffalo Bills (1991-94), and twice as a coach.
- Highly regarded in NFL circles with a knack for building lasting relationships, Reich's six-year head coaching tenure included five seasons with the Indianapolis Colts (2018-22) before his final stop at the helm of the Carolina Panthers (2023). Reich's NFL resume also includes four years as an offensive coordinator, including two seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles (2016-17), the second of which resulted in the franchise's first Super Bowl title in Super Bowl LII (2018).
- Reich's first season as Indianapolis head coach in 2018 coincided with the final season of Luck's playing career. Despite a 1-5 start, Reich guided the Colts to a 10-6 overall record and an appearance in the Divisional Round of the NFL Playoffs during a season that was highlighted by Luck earning Pro Bowl honors while being named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year.
- Reich's coaching career also includes two seasons as the offensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers (2014-15), following stints as quarterbacks coach, wide receivers coach and offensive coaching staff assistant with Indianapolis and Arizona. A coaching staff member of two Super Bowl winning franchises, Reich also served as an offensive staff assistant when Indianapolis won Super Bowl XLI (2007).
- Selected in the third round (57th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills, Reich's NFL career spanned 14 seasons and four organizations, with his last four years split between the Carolina Panthers (1995), New York Jets (1996) and Detroit Lions (1997-98). Reich threw for 40 touchdowns and passed for 6,075 yards, making 20 starts over a 118-game career.

FRAN BROWN

Head Coach

Second Season at Syracuse
Western Carolina '06

- Fran Brown was hired as Syracuse's 31st head coach on Nov. 28, 2023, and in one year, instilled a culture of success that has paid immediate dividends for the Syracuse football program.
- Brown delivered a 10-win season in his first year at the helm, tying Paul Pasqualoni (1991) for the most victories by a coach in their first season at Syracuse. The 10 wins are tied for the third-most victories in a season in program history and marked just the third double-digit win campaign for Syracuse since the start of this century.
- Buoyed by the culture of D.A.R.T. (Detailed. Accountable. Relentless. Tough.), Brown's Orange won three games against top-25 opponents, the most since 1998 for Syracuse, tallied nine wins over bowl teams, finished the season ranked in every poll for the first time since 2018 and boasted a 7-2 mark in one-score games. 'Cuse capped the season with a win over Washington State in the DIRECTV Holiday Bowl, the program's third-straight bowl appearance.
- Syracuse had 12 players earn All-ACC honors, the most since joining the conference, despite the league now having the most teams in conference history (17).
- The Orange's passing attack led the nation and set numerous records in Brown's first season. Led by standout Kyle McCord, who became the first Syracuse player to finish in the top 10 of Heisman Trophy voting since 2001. McCord set new program records for passing yards (4,779), completions (391), passing attempts (592), passing touchdowns (34), yards per game (367.6) and total offense (4,714).
- The Orange offense set over 20 individual or team single-season or career records on the season. Defensively, 10 different Syracuse players recorded an interception on the season, a hallmark of Brown's experience in the secondary and development of defensive backs.
- The nation's top recruiter, a member of the 2022 College Football National Championship coaching staff and a New Jersey native, Brown has invigorated Syracuse's recruiting efforts in just one season at Syracuse. The 2024 and 2025 recruiting classes – Brown's first two classes – are the two highest-ranked recruiting classes since the advent of national recruiting services. His first transfer portal class ranked No. 9 nationally, another program best.
- According to 247Sports, Brown was the No. 1 recruiter in the nation for the 2024 recruiting class and played a critical role in attracting top talent to Georgia. This designation follows his recruitment of two five-star prospects, both of whom were ranked No. 1 in their respective positions.

TONY ELLIOTT

The Fralin Family Head Football Coach
Fourth Season at Virginia
Clemson '04

- Virginia athletics director Carla Williams announced on Dec. 10, 2021 the hiring of Tony Elliott as the University of Virginia's Fralin Family Head Football Coach. Elliott became the 41st head football coach in the program's history.
- At Virginia, his first season at the helm in 2022 was marred by tragedy that claimed the lives of three of his players – Devin Chandler, Lavel Davis Jr. and D'Sean Perry. Elliott has carefully navigated the unprecedented circumstances and shown steady improvement, including last season where UVA was within one win of bowl eligibility, a benchmark not achieved at Virginia since 2021. The program has recorded two signature wins in the past two seasons, the first on the road against then-No. 10 North Carolina, Virginia's first ever road win over a top-10 opponent. The road warriors did it again in 2024 knocking off then-No. 23 Pitt in Acrisure Stadium for its third win away from Scott Stadium of the year, the most since 2011.
- Elliott spent 11 seasons as an assistant on Dabo Swinney's staff at Clemson. In January of 2021, he was named the program's assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He previously served as the team's co-offensive coordinator (2014-20) and the team's running backs coach (2011-20).
- At Clemson, Elliott was a part of a 10-season stretch in which the Tigers won 10 or more games. In that span, Clemson won six Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, made four appearances in the College Football Playoff National Championship game and captured national titles in 2016 and 2018.
- Since Elliott's promotion to co-offensive coordinator prior to the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl, the Tigers posted an 89-10 record and ranked in the top 12 nationally in total offense. Clemson either led or ranked No. 2 in the ACC in total offense in five of his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator. Elliott's 2018 and 2019 offenses were responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history.
- Elliott was named the Frank Broyles Award recipient as the nation's top assistant coach in 2017. Before transitioning to the tight ends room in 2021, Elliott was in charge of Clemson's running backs for his first 10 seasons. In that time, he guided Clemson running back Travis Etienne to one of the most illustrious careers in ACC and college football history, helping him set the NCAA record for most games scoring a touchdown (46) and secure ACC records for career rushing yards (4,952), total touchdowns (78), rushing touchdowns (70) and points (468).

BRENT PRY

Head Coach

Fourth Season at Virginia Tech
Buffalo '93

- Brent Pry enters his fourth season as the head football coach at Virginia Tech, having been named to the position on Nov. 30, 2021. He joined the Hokies after serving the previous eight seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Penn State.

- Pry's return to the Blacksburg sideline marked a full-circle moment in his coaching career. From 1995 to 1997, he was a graduate defensive assistant for Virginia Tech under legendary head coach Frank Beamer and defensive coordinator Bud Foster.

- A 30-year veteran in coaching, Pry has helped steer 16 teams to bowl appearances – including five career berths at Virginia Tech – and mentored eight teams to top-25 FBS rankings in total defense. Through three head coaching seasons, he has led the Hokies to the 2023 Military Bowl presented by GoBowling.com (the program's first bowl championship since 2016) and the 2025 Duke's Mayo Bowl.
- Pry's knack for player development soared to new heights during his head coaching tenure when 17 student-athletes at Virginia Tech's 2024 roster gained NFL opportunities via the 2025 NFL Draft and spring 2025 signing window.
- On the gridiron in 2024, Pry rolled out two All-ACC First-Team defensive linemen in Aeneas Peebles and Antwaun Powell-Ryland, who factored into Virginia Tech ranking 17th among FBS programs in sacks per game (2.85). Powell-Ryland boasted elite numbers from the edge, totaling 16.0 sacks and 19.0 TFLs – both top-five national rankings through the end of the 2024 regular season.
- Pry's 2024 Virginia Tech squad set a three-year high for turnover margin (+8) while ranking in a tie for 13th among FBS programs in turnovers gained (25). The Hokies also packaged the nation's seventh-best red zone defense, holding opponents to a 71.4 conversion percentage (led ACC).
- Offensively, Pry's 2024 Hokies remained among the top five ACC programs in rushing with help from the contributions of All-ACC Second-Team running back Bhayshul Tuten. In addition to becoming Virginia Tech's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2020, Tuten set the program's single-game record for rushing yards (266) during an October primetime affair against Boston College.
- During the 2023 season, Pry led Virginia Tech to a four-win improvement, highlighted by the Hokies winning five of their final seven games. Virginia Tech was one of eight Power Five teams that posted five or more conference wins by 17 or more points, averaging 41.8 points during its ACC victories while sporting a +126 scoring margin.
- Prior to his Blacksburg return, Pry yielded an enormity of success at Penn State, where his defenses consistently ranked among the nation's best units. In 2021, he was a nominee for the prestigious Broyles Award, presented annually to the top assistant coach in college football.

JAKE DICKERT

Head Coach

First Season at Wake Forest

Wisconsin-Stevens Point '07

- Jake Dickert was named the 33rd head coach of the Wake Forest football program on December 18, 2024.
- Dickert, who has been a college football coach for 17 seasons, has risen up the ranks, holding experience at nearly every level of the game. He has proven to be a consistent developer of NFL-caliber talent throughout his career, while also being a winner at each of his coaching stops.
- In four seasons as the head coach at Washington State, Dickert had a winning record and went to a bowl three times while having the Cougars ranked inside of the top-20 each of the last two seasons, climbing as high as No. 13 in 2023. Over the last three seasons, Dickert led the Cougars to a pair of wins in the Apple Cup vs. arch-rival Washington, a pair of ranked wins over No. 19-ranked Wisconsin in 2022 and 2023 and a victory against No. 14 Oregon State in 2023. Additionally, his program tallied an impressive 14-6 record in non-conference play.
- Over the last three NFL Draft cycles, Dickert had seven players selected and the three draft picks in 2024 marked the most for Washington State since the 2005 NFL Draft.
- Since arriving at the FBS level in 2017, Dickert's defenses have totaled 166 turnovers. That total would tie the 10th most by any school in the country during that seven-year stretch and the only ACC school to have more would be Clemson.
- In the classroom, Washington State had 45 players earn Pac-12 Fall Academic Honor Roll honors (3.3 GPA or higher) in his first three seasons as head coach.
- During Dickert's time in Pullman, he had multiple AFCA Good Works Team, Allstate Wuerffel Trophy Semifinalists for their work around the university and in the community, as well as semifinalists for the William V. Campbell Trophy, awarded to the college football player with the best combination of academics, community service and on-field performance.

ACC Champion: NC State

Player of the Year: Jay Venuto, Wake Forest

Rookie of the Year: Chuck McSwain, Clemson

Coach of the Year: John Mackovic, Wake Forest

NC State claimed its first title since 1973, finishing with a 5-1 mark while Maryland, defending champion Clemson and surprising Wake Forest ended up in a three-way tie for second at 4-2. The ACC, on the strength of a record-tying five teams having winning records, compiled its best record against non-conference opponents, going 28-18-3 versus outsiders. Three teams took part in post season play, with Clemson losing to Baylor in the Peach Bowl, 24-18, North Carolina beating Michigan, 17-15, in the Gator Bowl and Wake Forest, making its first bowl appearance in 30 years, losing to Louisiana State, 34-10, in the Tangerine Bowl. Clemson tackle Jim Stuckey, Maryland placekicker Dale Castro and N.C. State center Jim Ritcher were consensus All-Americans. In addition, Ritcher became the third player from an ACC school to be awarded the prestigious Outland Trophy. For the second straight year, Ritcher was awarded the ACC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy. Virginia's 20-18 win over Virginia Tech as well as Wake Forest's 19-14 victory over the Hokies were counted as a conference games due to schedule anomalies. Red Wilson succeeded Mike McGee at Duke. He was joined as a first-year head coach in the league by Danny Ford, who actually began his Clemson head coaching career in last year's Gator Bowl, but coached his first full season with the Tigers. NC State head coach Bo Rein left the Wolfpack to take the head coaching position at LSU, but died in a bizarre plane crash on a recruiting trip in January. He was replaced at State by former Arkansas assistant coach Monte Kiffin. Wake Forest head coach John Mackovic was named the ACC Coach of the Year after leading the Deacons to the first eight-win season in the history of the program. Wake Forest quarterback Jay Venuto set ACC single-season records for total offense (2,463), yards passing (2,432), offensive plays (443), passes attempted (367) and passes completed (198) and was named the ACC's Player of the Year. Clemson tailback Chuck McSwain was named the ACC's Rookie of the Year. Maryland tailback Charlie Wysocki led the ACC and ranked 6th nationally in rushing.

ACC Champion: Clemson
Player of the Year: Michael Dean Perry, Clemson
Rookie of the Year: Terry Allen, Clemson
Coach of the Year: Bill Dooley, Wake Forest

Clemson, the pre-season conference favorite, did just what it was expected to do as it won six of its seven ACC battles and successfully defended its championship ... It was the 10th outright title for the 10-2 Tigers and their fourth over the last seven years ... Virginia and Wake Forest had the biggest turnaround seasons as both finished with identical 7-4 marks ... A year earlier, the Cavaliers compiled a 3-8 record while the Deacons were 5-6 ... In bowl games, the Tigers knocked off Penn State, 35-10 in the Citrus Bowl, while Virginia bested BYU, 22-16 in the All-American Bowl ... Michael Dean Perry of Clemson was tabbed as the ACC Player of the Year, following in the footsteps of his older brother, William, who copped the same award in 1984 ... Perry, kicking specialist David Treadwell and defensive back Donnell Woolford, all of Clemson were named to at least one All-America first team ... Treadwell was a consensus first-team All-America choice and finished 5th nationally in field goals ... Woolford finished 3rd nationally in punt returns, averaging 15.5 yards per return and returning 2 for touchdowns ... League records established during the season include team passing yardage by Duke, individual total offense by Duke quarterback Steve Slayden and most pass receiving yardage by teammate Clarkston Hines ... Veteran ACC head coaches Bobby Ross (Maryland) and Bill Dooley (North Carolina) rejoined the league with new teams at Georgia Tech and Wake Forest, respectively ... Dooley led the Deacons to a tie for third place and was named ACC Coach of the Year ... Clemson guard John Phillips was chosen as the winner of the ACC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the conference's top blocker ... Virginia freshman defensive back Keith McMeans led the nation in pass interceptions with 9 in just 10 games, a 0.90 average ... His Cavalier teammate Kevin Cook ranked 4th in the nation in pass interceptions with 8 in 11 games ... Clemson ranked 5th nationally in total defense, allowing just 240.0 yards per game ... The Tigers also were ranked 2nd in defense against the run, allowing just 80.0 yards per game on the ground ... Duke ranked 4th nationally in passing offense, averaging 313.0 yards per game through the air.

*Georgia Tech's 2009 win over Clemson in the ACC Championship Game was later vacated due to NCAA sanctions.

Note: In 1965, Duke and South Carolina finished the regular season tied for the conference lead with identical 4-2 league marks before ACC Commissioner Jim Weaver ruled that the Gamecocks had violated league rules in regards to the eligibility of two players and were required to forfeit all conference games in which the two players had participated. Due to the forfeit wins they received, NC State and Clemson, which had both lost to South Carolina, were declared ACC co-champions with 5-2 records in league play, while Duke, which did not play South Carolina, finished third with its 4-2 mark.

AFCA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The Academic Achievement Award has been presented annually since 1981. The award recognizes a Division I-A member school with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team. Duke has earned the award a league-high 14 times, followed by Boston College, Stanford and Virginia five times each, Clemson four times, Miami, Louisville and Wake Forest twice, North Carolina, Pitt, SMU and Syracuse once each. Schools with a 75 percent graduation rate were awarded an honorable mention listing. The ACC tied a league record with 11 ACC schools honored in 2017.

Florida State's Bobby Bowden had an unprecedented 44-year coaching career, which saw him finish with 377 career victories, the second-highest total in NCAA history at the FBS level ... Bowden's accomplishments are legendary and include the most wins by an ACC coach (173), the most conference wins by an ACC coach (117) and the best winning percentage in ACC games (.813), as well as winning twice as many ACC titles (12) as any other coach.

Virginia's George Welsh retired in 2000 as the winningest coach in ACC history with 134 wins in 19 seasons ... the 1955 Naval Academy graduate directed the Cavaliers to 12 bowl games, including nine in his last 11 seasons ... Welsh was named ACC Coach of the Year four times (1983, 1984, 1991 and 1995) and National Coach of the Year once (1991) ... his Cavaliers tied for two ACC titles (1989 and 1995) ... Welsh currently ranks third overall on the ACC's all-time wins list.

Following is a list of players from ACC schools that have been selected in the annual NFL Draft. The NFL's inaugural draft was held on February 8, 1936, while the AFL conducted its own draft from 1960 through 1966. The two leagues merged their player drafts into one player draft in 1967.

* Designates a pick in the NFL supplemental draft. The supplemental draft was enacted in 1977 for players who had various circumstances affect their eligibility and did not enter the main NFL draft. In 1984, the National Football League held a supplemental draft for college seniors who had already signed with either the United States Football League or the Canadian Football League.
